

Capital Markets Commitment

Together We Make A Difference!

Our Capital Markets Commitment directs 10% of gross revenue from our capital markets transaction deal fees to organizations making a difference in veteran communities. CAVU provides an Annual Report on the difference our clients make. Check out the 2022 CAVU Annual Impact Report here. We actively support the following organizations:

Soldier's Angels

Soldier's Angels has been providing aid, comfort, and resources to military and veteran communities through a network of their global volunteers who represent all 50 states and 31 countries abroad. They have worked closely with deployed service members and their families, wounded veterans, and active duty members- providing them with the support they deserve.

Stay In Step

Stay in Step is a non-profit recovery center designed to provide state-of-the-art treatment to SCI patients in the Tampa and surrounding community areas. Open to both military and civilian SCI patients, the Center takes a proactive approach to rehabilitation combined with real-time global collaboration with other SCI subject matter experts and patients.

The Marine Corps Scholarship Foundation

The Marine Corps Scholarship Foundation is the nation's oldest and largest provider of need-based scholarships to military children, providing access to affordable education for the children of Marine and Navy Corpsman attending post-high school, undergraduate and career technical education programs for more than 60 years.

True North Foundation

The True North Foundation began as a corporate initiative started by former U.S. Marine Corps Infantry Captain, Greg Parsons, who is also CEO of CAVU Securities, LLC and Semper Capital Mangement. True North serves as a central hub and vehicle for critical veteran organizations doing work across transition, education, rehabilitation, and adaptive sports.
